NCIA-1C4

Chief of Station, Frankfurt

6 May 1952

Chief, Bonn Liaison Office

Operational

Erich Gustav JAEMKE

REF: NCIA-079(Cultry)

1. About six weeks ago during my last meeting with [ ] of MI-6, I asked him if he could tell me something about JAEMKE. I explained to him that on several occasions JAEMKE had requested a MI600 employee (Mike L. M. Koberneth) to introduce him to some American intelligence officials to whom he could make some rather interesting disclosures. [ ] admitted that he was familiar with JAEMKE's case, when he considered an intelligence peddler involved in all sorts of shady deals. For example, the German Soft Drink Association gave JAEMKE some of their trade secrets as a basis for his investigation of the trade secrets of American soft drinks. JAEMKE sold the German secrets to the Coca-Cola representative in Dusseldorf for 10,000 DM, and the German Soft Drink Association is now considering the advisability of suing JAEMKE for breach of confidence.

2. About two weeks after my talk with [ ] I learned that JAEMKE had been arrested by the British. During our interest in the case, the British liaison officer this morning brought me the attached extract of their interrogation report. He was careful to explain that the report contained only items that would be of interest to us. [ ] should we want additional details we should get in touch with [ ].

[ ] Koberneth, who is handling the case. If you wish to meet a representative to talk to [ ] I shall be glad to arrange an appointment with him.
